

LEARN WHAT TO EXPECT

FREE ONLINE HEALTH LECTURE

Visiting Your Doctor's Office or Foothills Hospital

Early in the COVID-19 pandemic, concerns about safety led many Boulder Community Health patients to put off routine check-ups and postpone non-emergency surgeries, but what about now? Are you still worried about seeking medical care? Learning what to expect during a visit to BCH can help ease your concerns.

WATCH THE LECTURE ONLINE

Join us for an online lecture to get answers to these and many other questions:

- How will we keep you from coming in contact with other patients?
- What types of screenings are being performed for in-person visits?
- What type of screening tests are being performed before medical procedures?
- Where are COVID-19 patients being treated in the hospital?
- How many times are surfaces cleaned and what types of disinfectants does BCH use?

When Thursday, Aug. 27, from 7 to 8 p.m.

Where Watch online. You'll get the link once you register.

Speakers

- Angela Kloepper-Shapiro, MD, with Internal Medicine Associates — Buffalo Ridge
- Amie Meditz, MD, with Beacon Center for Infectious Diseases
- Daniel O'Hair, MD, with Boulder Heart
- Michele Sternitzky, RN, BSN, Associate VP of Nursing

RESERVATIONS REQUIRED:
bchlectures.org/BCHvisits

Boulder Community Health

Boulder Community Health (BCH) does not exclude, deny benefits to, or otherwise discriminate against any person on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, or on the basis of disability or age in admission to, participation in, or receipt of the services and benefits under any of its programs and activities, whether carried out by BCH directly or through a contract or any other entity with which BCH arranges to carry out its programs and activities.