Are varicose veins keeping you from wearing clothes that show your legs? It's time to finally feel comfortable with how your legs look and feel. Get rid of those varicose veins.

Our speaker is Dr. Jie Mao, who has treated nearly 1,000 patients with varicose veins. She'll explain the causes of varicose veins and how they can lead to serious health problems. Then she'll describe self-care measures and minimally invasive outpatient procedures that can help your legs look and feel better.
