What you should know about screening mammograms

When Monday, Oct. 17, from 7 to 8 p.m. (Mountain Time)

Where Watch online. You'll get the link once you register.

Speaker Catherine Evans, MD, of Boulder Radiologists

Breast cancer accounts for about 1 in 3 of all new female cancers each year in the United States. About 43,000 are expected to die from the disease in 2022. The good news is that early detection saves lives.

Hear board-certified radiologist Catherine Evans, MD, of Boulder Radiologists describe what you should know about screening mammograms, which can detect breast cancer early when it's easier to successfully treat.
